

Edward's Trust 3000 Partnership

An opportunity for business to support local bereaved families and children to help them to a brighter future.

The effects of bereavement will have an impact upon everyone at some point in their life. The death of someone close is an emotional and difficult experience. At Sunrise, our Family Bereavement Support Centre, we support families following death through illness, accident, suicide or violence.

Edward's Trust is an established provider of therapeutic support and counselling to:

- Families affected by the death of a child, and
- Children bereaved of a parent, primary carer or sibling.

Bereavement can often be a devastating experience for young people. Statistics show that a child is bereaved of a parent every 30 minutes. Many of those young people need the counselling and support we provide.

In addition, we currently provide outreach into more than 19 local schools to support bereaved young people.

Our specialised teams provide the care and support to help those facing such tragedies, utilising their vast experience in dealing with the many emotions and stresses caused by bereavement.

It is vital that the support programmes we offer continue to be available to as many children and families as possible. The costs involved are high and the work of Edwards Trust is funded through charitable donations.

Edward's Trust 3000 Partnership

What Edward's Trust Sunrise does:

- Provides vital one to one and family bereavement counselling / support for as long as it is needed.
- Facilitates residential weekends for bereaved parents and couples.
- Provides training for school personnel to help them support bereaved pupils.

The average cost to support a bereaved young person or family through a structured life changing programme is £3000.00! We are looking to recruit 100 companies who would be prepared to donate £3000.00 to fund this work. It can be a one off donation or staggered throughout the year.

Sign up this year as an Edward's Trust 3000 Partner.

In return you will feature on a dedicated page of Edward's Trust website, receive a certificate of support and be invited to a reception later in the year. Your donation will help us to help bereaved families through the most difficult of times and to face the future with hope.
